Comments: Pathetic Loser,

You have a warning to produce the disproofs of mathematically you claim to have written. That means a matter-of-fact dissection, and invalidation of vital principle. Evidently, you don't know what a proof or disproof is.

But let me give you your first clue: It's just a slight cut above citing subhumans who claim my thesis \"may\" be \"horse shit.\"

Obviously, you're looking for attention, and you don't have the class even to care what that attention is about. It's the \"man\" who doesn't have an argument who has to resort to \"bad names\" such as \"socialist.\"

Produce your disproofs of mathematically perfected economy™. Or tell us, do you actually consider your page a disproof?

As to your pathetic expectation no one can answer to you, tell us first why anyone should.
